

On the Green

EDWARD MINER GALLAUDET MEMORIAL LIBRARY
GALLAUDET COLLEGE
WASHINGTON, D. C.

VOL. II, NO. 23
July 5, 1973

SIGN LANGUAGE INSTITUTE OPENS SESSIONS

The Department of Education is sponsoring a summer institute coordinated by Gerilee Gustason and James Woodward on Recent Developments in Manual English. The institute, which began on June 30, will run through July 13.

Some of the major lectures and demonstrations are open to the public in Hall Memorial Building, room 357.

These sessions include:

July 5 from 9 a.m.-12 noon:

Seeing Essential English with David Anthony

July 6 from 9 a.m.-12 noon:

Linguistics of Visual English with David Wampler

July 7 from 9 a.m.-12 noon:

Signed English As Developed For The Gallaudet Preschool with Harry Bornstein

July 8 from 1-3 p.m.:

Seeing Exact English with Gerilee Gustason

July 10 from 9-11 a.m.:

The Position of the National Association of the Deaf with Fred Schreiber

July 10 from 1-3 p.m.:

Panel Discussion of Reactions to New Signs

AROUND AND ABOUT

The College is undertaking a study to insure that our physical plant facilities are operated and maintained in a manner consistent with our needs. The study will be conducted by the management consulting firm of Cresap, McCormick, and Paget.... We have learned that Virginia Newton died last month of a heart attack. Virginia, who was living in Ohio, had been a switchboard operator at the College some years ago.... Several gifts recently have been made to the College. The Delta Zeta Sorority Alumni Chapter in Spokane, Washington, has made a gift to the Library and the Polish National Alliance is giving scholarship aid to John Skrobisz, the first student from Poland to attend Gallaudet.... George Washington University will sponsor a two-day institute on Learning for Tomorrow: A Look at Education Futures on July 24 and 25. The institute leader will be Dr. Harold Shane, university professor of education at Indiana University. For information call 676-6160.

SEMINAR FOR DEAF EXECUTIVES HELD

In cooperation with the Professional Rehabilitation Workers With the Adult Deaf, the Public Service Program conducted the second of two management training seminars for deaf executives. The seminar was held in Columbia, Missouri, from June 18-20.

Conducting the seminar were Dr. John F. McGowan, dean of the University of Missouri, Extension Division, and Dr. Francis M. Trusty, professor and chairman of the Department of Educational Administration at the University of Tennessee.

The first of these management seminars was held in April in Skyline Drive, Virginia, and brought together deaf executives selected from the eastern portion of the United States.

Among the 16 participants at the second seminar, Jack Gannon and Don Pettingill went from Gallaudet.

POSITIONS AVAILABLE: NON-FACULTY
AIR CONDITIONING/REGRIGERATION
MECHANIC: Physical Plant

PLANNER/SCHEDULER: Physical Plant
SECRETARY: Personnel
MAINTENANCE HELPER: Physical Plant
METHODS ANALYST: Office of General
Services
PLANNING ASSISTANT: Office of the Vice President
SECRETARY: MSSD
AUDIO VISUAL TECHNICIAN: Kendall School
CLERK-TYPIST/ACCOUNTING CLERK: Kendall
School
PLANT ENGINEER: Physical Plant
DRIVER: MSSD
SECRETARY: Purchasing
CLERK-TYPIST: Purchasing
NURSE: Infirmary
DIRECTOR OF CENTER FOR COMMUNITY EDUCATION:
Center for Continuing Education

KENDALL STUDENTS HONORED

Thirteen Kendall students, who are advancing to MSSD, and their parents were honored at a luncheon on June 13 at the New York Avenue Holiday Inn.

Preceding the luncheon, several of the parents toured the MSSD facility.

The 13 students are: Wayne Banks, Frontis Bellinger, Jeanette Byrd, Bernice Campbell, Ronald Dick, Jimmy Dwyer, Dennis Ferguson, Ira Hendon, Kenneth Jackson, Caroline Newsome, Pamela Nutt, Angela Price, and Gregory Verdin.

BERG AND KRUGER INDUCTED INTO HALL OF FAME

Tom Berg, track coach at Gallaudet, and Art Kruger, chairman of the United States World Games for the Deaf Committee, became the first deaf men to be inducted into the Helms Foundation Hall of Fame.

Frank Medina, representing the Helms Foundation, conducted the ceremony at the College on July 5.

Art Kruger showed his interest in deaf athletics in 1941 when he organized the annual National Basketball Tournament for the Deaf. Four years later he formed the American Athletic Association of the Deaf, Inc.. He served as Games director for the 1957 and 1961 Deaf Olympics and as chairman of the United States World Games for the Deaf Committee in 1969 and 1973.

Tom Berg has been track coach at the College since 1957 and was cross country coach of the U.S. track and field team at three previous Deaf Olympics and is again training this year's team for the competition in Sweden. In 1965 he served as director of the Games.

The Helms Foundation Hall of Fame, founded in 1936, serves to recognize those athletes, coaches, and others who have given of their time and effort on behalf of amateur athletics.

BEHAVIOR MODIFICATION FOCUS OF SUMMER INSTITUTE

The Department of Education will offer an Institute on Behavior Modification Approaches to Teaching Hearing Impaired Children from July 13 through August 3.

Coordinated by Donald Brown, the institute will feature as consultants Dr. Charles Madsen of Florida State University, Dr. Schlomo Cohen of the National Child Research Center, Dr. Daniel O'Leary, SUNY, Stoneybrook, and Sophia Brown, teacher of the deaf.

Persons wishing to apply should contact the Office of Admissions or the Department of Education.

FRENCH CHEF TO BE CAPTIONED

WETA-TV, Channel 26, will continue to present captioned programs selected from the "French Chef" series with Julia Child. They will be aired Wednesday evenings at 7:30 p.m. during the month of July.

These programs include: July 13 - "To Stuff A Cabbage;" July 18 - "French Fries;" and July 25 "Quiche Lorraine and Company."

The project, which is being funded by a U.S. Office of Education grant, attempts to capture the spirit of Julia Child through the use of captions in a variety of face styles and placement locations on the screen.

WHAT'S NEW??

Have an item for ON THE GREEN? If so please submit it to Judy Bortner in the Office of Alumni and Public Relations. Deadline for the next issue is July 16.

Judy